

Sisters Network Baltimore Gift for Life Block Walk[®] Saturday, September 10, 2011

In Baltimore, more women die from breast cancer than in most other cities in Maryland. In the US, more white women get breast cancer, but more black women die from it.

Women Empowered

Take control of your health and stop breast cancer!

MEET GUEST SPEAKERS

Dr. Dawn Johnson Leonard, Medical Director of Northwest Hospital's Herman & Walter Samuelson Breast Care Center, and Maimah Karmo, President of Tigerlily Foundation and recipient of the Congressional Black Caucus Leadership in Advocacy Award.

FEATURING

- Free breast health resources
- Giveaways
- Free lunch

Sisters Network Inc. is a leading voice and the only national African American breast cancer survivorship organization in the United States.

Join us in Park Heights on September 10th!

Maimah Karmo
President,
Tigerlily Foundation

For more details, call (toll-free) 866 858 7434 or e-mail info@med-iq.com.

Sponsored by:
Med-IQ[®]
Inspiring Medical Education

Sisters
NETWORK[®] INC.
Baltimore
Affiliate Chapter of Sisters Network Inc.

This activity is supported by an educational grant from sanofi-aventis U.S.

sanofi aventis
Because health matters